

“AN INCLUSIVE AND THRIVING CENTER OF JEWISH SPIRITUAL, CULTURAL AND SOCIAL LIFE FOR THE LAWRENCE AREA.”

COMING SOON: LJCC–JCW COOKBOOK!

We are happy to announce that the project for a new LJCC-JCW cookbook has been revitalized and is on track to come to fruition. The project celebrates our diverse, inclusive, and wonderfully supportive community.

Like many communities, LJCC is bound together in part through food - not just foods associated with the seasonal round of the Jewish Calendar, but foods associated with people who comprise the community, past and present. Many such recipes reflect and celebrate as well, for the individual, deeply treasured personal relationships with family and friends.

What we need now is for LJCC members and friends of LJCC to contribute recipes for the cookbook. We urge everyone to be a participant in this important project. Success depends on wide community involvement. The Call for Recipes on page 3 describes how you can be a contributor.

LJCC –JCW COOKBOOK: CALL FOR RECIPES!

Here is what you can do to help make the LJCC-JCW cookbook a success.

Recipes

Choose anywhere from 1 to 5 recipes you think would be good for inclusion in the cookbook. Ideally, the recipe should have some meaning to you. For example, it might be one or all of the following:

- ◆ Something you prepare often in your home, a recipe proven to be a favorite.
- ◆ Something you traditionally prepare for one of the Jewish holidays or for a special family occasion such as a birthday.
- ◆ A recipe you associate with a family member or friend, perhaps one that has been handed down over generations.
- ◆ Something you often bring to an Oneg.

Note: Criteria for Inclusion

We cannot promise that all recipes an individual submits will be included in the cookbook. We need to aim for a range of contributors and recipes, and must think in terms of space limitations. We can promise, however, that at least one recipe will be included.

Additional Information to Provide

Because we want the cookbook to be a very personalized picture of our community, we ask you to include any stories or associations you would like to share about a particular recipe that illustrate the meaning the recipe has for you or your family. (Look at points 1 through 4 under “Recipes” above for the kinds of stories or associations you might remark upon.) Also, if a recipe is from a particular cookbook, please reference the cookbook. If you have “adapted” (i.e. changed) the recipe, note this too; i.e., “adapted from....”

Format

Provide full instructions with regard to ingredients, how to prepare, cooking time, special tips, etc. If possible, type this information, and any comments you would like to include about the personal meaning of the recipe, on your computer so it can be sent by email. If it is not possible for you to email the information, clearly handwrite the instructions and comments for alternative means of conveying the relevant information.

Getting the Recipe(s) to the Recipe Committee

We offer four possible ways for you to submit your recipe(s).

- ◆ Email your recipe(s) and your comments on the personal meaning of the recipe(s) to all three members of the recipe committee. Committee members are Kathleen Levy, Suzanne Sherr. and Jill Kleinberg.
- ◆ If you send a handwritten (or typed) copy of the recipe/comments by snail mail, please send it either to Kathleen, Suzanne, or Jill.
- ◆ Alternatively, you may give the handwritten (or typed) recipe/comments to Marty at the LJCC office or to Kathleen, Suzanne, or Jill at an LJCC event.
- ◆ Finally, we will gladly pick up the recipe(s)/comments at your home. Please contact Kathleen, Suzanne, or Jill to make arrangements.

LJCC OUTREACH UPDATE

LJCC Community Outreach Activities March 2018 Update

Transportation Needs: Several LJCC members and potential members are in need of transportation to attend Services and other LJCC activities such as Adult Education, and special events. (Have been contacting Adult Care facilities about bus transportation & need to set up list of LJCC volunteers for private transportation/ ride sharing for those still at home but not driving.)

Assessing Community Needs: In process of working with the Board on determining needed changes to LJCC offerings: religious; social activities; educational programs. This will be accomplished by sounding out currently active members, inactive members, lapsed members and potential new members. (Attempt to determine what activities are desired or needed, and what types of activities might attract people to attend more often and identify the LJCC as a hub of Lawrence Jewish Social Activity.)

Establishing the LJCC's identity as a Welcoming Congregation: We need to work, as a congregation and individually, on projecting to the Lawrence Jewish Community an Image of a Welcoming Congregation that is not just focused on increasing membership growth, but on being a social & religious hub that people want to visit for sharing our common Jewish religion, culture, foods, and just plain schmoozing and socializing.

ADULT EDUCATION

WITH
RABBI MARK LEVIN

THURSDAY, MARCH 22
7:30PM

INTERMARRIAGE

*Changes in Jewish institutions
on their attitudes,
practices, and acceptance of
in Judaism.*

The LJCC should be one of the first places we think of to go to share good news with friends over bagels and coffee, and for young people to network on business ideas with their peers and older members who could serve as mentors. While we do offer some excellent Adult Ed courses and a variety of Friday and Saturday Shabbat Services, the attendance at those offerings could be much better and should be supplemented with some social activities during other days of the week. A Wednesday a.m. "Breakfast Club" or a Sunday morning "Schmooze Hour" over bagels, cream cheese spread and coffee for example.

These Community Outreach Activities are just some of the ideas being explored by the LJCC Board in their Strategic Planning Process. We would welcome any thoughts and comments you may have on these suggestions or any new and different suggestions that we could consider. Your involvement in making the LJCC a more welcoming and active part of our Lawrence Jewish Community and Lawrence Community as a whole is greatly appreciated!

B' Shalom! Steve

Members' dues support Jewish life in Lawrence. We want to continue to offer religious services, including High Holiday services; religious school; adult education; holiday celebrations; and lectures and social activities sought by our membership.

Our dues are established by each member on the basis of his/her financial situation. For those able to conform to them, we offer suggested guidelines, which are 1.5% of gross income. Single-parent families and new members for the first year are 1%. Associate Membership for those who live outside of Lawrence or pay dues to another congregation is $216 per year.

Contact the Treasurer, Martin Winkler, if you have questions or wish to explore alternative arrangements.
To become a member, please print the following information and send with your check to: LJCC, 917 Highland Drive, Lawrence, KS 66044.
